My beloved Josephites and Raphaelites,

We are to live for God alone.

The psalm selection for this weekend is from Psalm 22, which has this profound statement,

"To him alone shall bow down all who sleep in the earth; before him shall bend all who go down into the dust."

It is only to God that we give adoration and the ultimate reverence. It is before God that we will stand at the end of our lives to face our final judgment. It is only in God's judgment will we find ourselves in heaven or hell for all eternity. So we should live every day with this understanding.

This is not to say that we should live our lives in fear of the final judgment. Rather, we should use this as a guide to keep us in the love of God in the here and now, remembering that it is for God alone that we live and it is for God alone that we die. In keeping this in mind, it becomes ever easier to live every day and every moment of our lives dedicated to him. We exist not for ourselves, but for God alone. And when we live for God alone, it is then that we actually find the greatest freedom and our greatest happiness.

God is all in all. We can scarcely comprehend this in this life. When we enter into the next life we are going to be overcome with awe of the all-powerful, all-knowing and ever living God. We do not want to be caught off guard in this magnificent encounter on that great day of our death. We want to be looking forward to this. And when it comes to the moment of our death, we should long to go before God, knowing that he is our fulfillment and our eternal joy.

Ask your guardian angel to help you cultivate an awareness of being in God's presence at all times. The more we become aware of God's presence then the more we will live for him and the more we will enter into that glorious friendship with our Creator.

God loves you very much. You were made for him. And if you live for him, you will find your happiness.

God loves you very much. Love him in return.

In the love of our resurrected Lord,

Fr. Nursey

Feast of Corpus Christi Procession

June 2, 2024 | 11AM Mass
St. Joseph of Onekama

Calling all Altar Servers, Ministers, and Parishioners!

A Eucharist procession is an extension of our worship of Jesus Christ, truly present in the Blessed Sacrament. Our worship of Him at the Mass is intensified through Eucharistic worship with a Eucharistic procession. Please come process with the Knights of Columbus as the escort, Fr. Nursey, and Jesus in the Eucharist on the St. Joseph Church grounds this June 2.

We will be holding training for the procession the week before. Please sign up ASAP or contact the parish office as there are many positions available in this unique adoration of our Lord!
